Line of actual control

1600. SHRI SHABBIR AHMAD SALARIA: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is a line of actual control dividing Jammu and Kashmir, if so, since when; and through which villages does it pass; and

(b) whether there is any proposal to convert it into an international border?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI MADHAVSINH SOLANKI): (a) Subsequent to the cease-fire between India and Pakistan on 17 December, 1971 and the signing of the Simla Agreement on 2 July, 1972 work on the delineation of a Line of Control (LOC) was jointly undertaken by the Indian and Pakistani Army Authorities and completed on 11 December, 1972. The LOC starting from Sangam near Manawar Tawi, runs generally Northwards to the West of Palanwala, Laleali, Naushahra, Jhangar, Rajouri, Punch, Uri, Tithwal and Keran upto Bor. Thereafter, it turns Eastwards and runs to the North of Kuchhaban, Shalabatho, Naean Gali, Machhal, Kanzalwan, Dawar, Niru, Kaobal Gali, Dras Kargil, Batalik, Tyakshi, Chalunka and Shukpa, thence Northwards upto a reference point No. 9842 on the Glaciers.

(b) No, Sir.

Measures for safety of students in Russia

1601. SHRI P. UPENDRA: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether a large number of Indian students are studying in Moscow and various other cities of the Republics of the erstwhile Soviet Union; and

(b) if so, what action has been taken by Government to bring these students to safer places to enable them to continue their studies?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI MADHAVSINH SOLANKI): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) As per information presently available with Government almost all the locations where Indian students are studying in the former USSR are quite safe. Wherever difficulties have arisen as for instance in the case of Georgir, Government have taken necessary steps including facilitating transit arrangements in appropriate academic institutions assistance in placement of students in appropriate academic institutions in former USSR.

The situation is constantly under review.
